Promoting positive "MEANINGFUL" community outreach in all neighborhoods!

Corey Artis epitomizes integrity, energy, hard work, and Christian values in his everyday life. Corey grew up in the Dallas areas of Oak Cliff and Desoto. Upon graduating high school, he started a career in law enforcement and later transitioned into corporate America where he discovered his passion for working to make an important contribution to the lives of others. Human resources have been the vehicle for him to accomplish this goal and he has over 19 years of progressive experience.

He has held positions that include Senior Recruiter, Recruiting Manager, Corporate Recruiter, HR Manager, Operations Manager, Onsite Staffing Manager and Managing Director. His many years of experience serving internal & external clients have prepared him to take on the role of VP of Staffing.

"Corey has a talent for being able to grasp a company's goals and culture to find the best fit for his client's needs."

Corey is a family man with a devotion to God and his Church Community with a passion for helping others!

Vince Lombardi once said, "Individual commitment to a group effort - that is what makes a team work, a company work, a society work, a civilization work"—My focus is to always believe in a goal, to focus move towards its the achievement and to learn from any mistakes. Work ethic is not only the key to becoming successful, but also the direct value that which is needed in order to build a professional outlook within yourself and the people around you.
